Engaging Activity: Breathing Ball

What is stress?

A physiological reaction that prepares an individual to respond to a stressor.

What is a stressor?

The stressor is usually something that threatens the well-being or homeostasis (stable equilibrium) of the individual.

Benefits

- ❖ Positive challenge
- ❖ Motivates us to take action
- ❖ Promotes well-being
- ❖ Enhances performance

Detriments

- ❖ No relief in sight
- ❖ Makes us physically sick
- ❖ Weakens immune system
- ❖ Impairs performance

Stress Accumulates ↔ Allostatic Load

Allostatic load is "the wear and tear on the body," which accumulates as an individual is exposed to repeated or chronic stress.

There is no right or wrong way to feel,
nor right or wrong
way to notice.

STRESSOR: Pandemic (CDC)

- Health-related fear

- Sleep problems

- Eating problems

- Concentration problems

- Worsening of chronic health problems

- Increased use of alcohol, tobacco, and other drugs

- Isolation

Issues we face...

Why Focus on School Stress?

In highly stressed school environments, teachers and learners pay the costs.

When teachers are highly stressed, students show lower levels of both social adjustment and academic performance.

Teacher Burnout

Disrupts relationships between schools and communities

Turnover happens most in poorly performing schools, leading to destabilization of low-income neighborhood schools.

Stress Is Contagious

Higher cortisol levels were found in students whose teachers reported high levels of stress and burnout.

Researcher Kimberly Schonert-Reichl urges educators to be aware of their own mindsets and to practice mental wellness exercises to reduce their stress levels.

Self-Care is primary to caring for others.

THE VAGUS NERVE

How to Hack Your Nervous System

The vagus nerve, the tenth cranial nerve, is the superhighway of the nervous system that connects the body and brain. We can tone the vagus nerve through deep breathing exercises.
